Mr. James P. Sprague, Administrative Law Judge
RE: Case No. 09-REM-10-0443

Dear Mr. Sprague:

I respectfully wish to inform you that, due to circumstances beyond my financial means to afford representation by a professional lawyer, I have temporarily been forced to discontinue pursue of my judicial complaint hearing at this time through the State Personnel Board of Review.

In addition and on the brighter side, I have recently become aware that there is the strong possibility another related and highly respected legal opinion document may be forthcoming very soon which could impact on my "mistreatment" and "dismissal" issues by the Gallia County Veterans Service Commission.

I am deeply appreciative of all the efforts you and the other staff members of the State Personnel Board of Review have extended to me throughout the highly questionable attitude and unorthodox behavior exhibited by the Gallia County Veterans Service Commission and their legal representative, Mr. Eugene P. Nevada.

BEST SINCERE REGARDS,

John L. Frazer
