

STATE OF OHIO
STATE PERSONNEL BOARD OF REVIEW

MARK STRICKLAND,

Appellant,

v.

Case No. 11-INV-09-0321

DEPARTMENT OF YOUTH SERVICES, CENTRAL OFFICE,

Appellee

ORDER

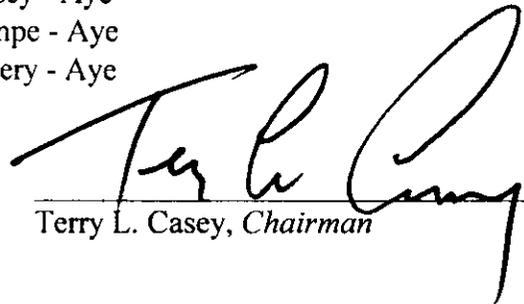

This matter came on for consideration on the Report and Recommendation of the Administrative Law Judge in the above-captioned appeal.

After a thorough examination of the entirety of the record, including a review of the Report and Recommendation of the Administrative Law Judge, along with any objections to that report which have been timely and properly filed, the Board hereby adopts the Recommendation of the Administrative Law Judge.

Wherefore, it is hereby ORDERED that the instant appeal is DISMISSED because Appellant's request for investigation fails to allege with particularity any violation of the civil service law to which Appellee may be required to respond, or over which this Board may exercise its investigatory jurisdiction.

Mark Strickland,

Case No. 11-INV-09-0321

Appellant

v.

April 23, 2012

Department of Youth Services,
Central Office,

Jeannette E. Gunn
Administrative Law Judge

Appellee

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

To the Honorable State Personnel Board of Review:

This cause comes on due to a review of the information contained in the record. On September 29, 2011, this Board issued correspondence to Appellant, instructing him to provide the Board with information alleging with particularity the requirements of civil service law which he believed to have been violated by Appellee. Such information was required to be postmarked not later than October 14, 2011, and Appellant was notified that failure to provide the requested information would result in a dismissal of his case. Appellant requested and was granted an extension of time until December 1, 2011, to respond to the Board's letter. To date, this Board has received no response from Appellant.

Therefore, because Appellant's request for investigation fails to allege with particularity any violation of the civil service law to which Appellee may be required to respond, or over which this Board may exercise its investigatory jurisdiction, I respectfully RECOMMEND that the instant appeal be DISMISSED.

Jeannette E. Gunn
Administrative Law Judge
